Good Ones.

The following, which we clip from the Louisville Post, tells of the work being done by our young friend, Mr. Joe Cromie, in the handling of his string of trotters. Joe is a reliable, clever young man, and we are glad to note that he has a good string of horses:

"Joe Cromie, of Frankfort, is training a stable of ten head at the Lexington track, and they are moving nicely for him. Joe has been handling them carefully at Frankfort, and has them in excellent condition for work. Those he is training are: Bonny Doon, black mare, five years old, by Ingleswood, dam by John Burdine; Hulda, bay filly, three years old, by Onward, dam by Electioneer; bay mare (4), by Alfred G., dam by Gen. Hancock; brown filly (3), by Norval, dam by Amber; bay colt (3), by Norval, and his Futurity candidate Kara, bay filly, two years old, by John G. Carlisle, out of Monotone by Dictator. The latter is a very fast youngster, having gone a mile close to 2:25 before he left Frankfort. The others in Cromie's stable are yearlings and a promising lot."
